LEGACY & EXPERTISE

Unifrest's legacy spans for three generations of citrus farming and exporting experience. This wealth of knowledge and accumulated expertise, acquired over three decades, has given the company a deep understanding of the complications involved in cultivating, handling, and exporting citrus fruits, especially oranges and mandarins.

GLOBAL REACH

With a strategic location in the Jebel Ali Free Zone, Unifrest is well-positioned to access international markets. The Company's commitment to serving global grocery retailers and food service companies has allowed it to establish a significant presence in the worldwide export landscape.

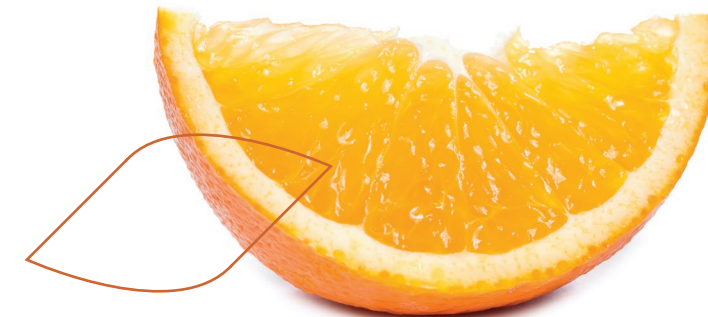

Unifrest's products are well-regarded for their freshness, taste, and quality, making them a preferred choice for discerning customers around the globe.

YEAR-ROUND SUPPLY

One of Unifrest's unique strengths is its ability to provide its products year-round by capitalizing on the differences between the Northern and Southern Hemispheres, the company will ensure a consistent supply of high-quality product fruits even as growing seasons change.

This strategic approach enables Unifrest to fulfil customer demands across diverse markets with uninterrupted availability.
